Swing Fever Saturday, Apr 10 7:30 PM Tickets: $20

Swing Fever had been performing jazz of the 1930's and 1940's since 1978. The band is dedicated to the music of the Swing Era, playing it as critic Phil Elwood said, "as though the numbers are on today's Hit Parade." This concert will be a delight for jazz lovers!

Sara Milonovich and Daisycutter Saturday, Apr 17 7:30 PM Tickets: $15

Sara Milonovich and Daisycutter is a band of adventurous luminaries from the many and varied music scenes of New York. They've been described as "acoustic and electric, agnostic and eclectic", but it's much more than that and trickier to pin down- a little roots-rock, a bit of oldtime-newgrass, flavors of world-beat jazz... it's alt-folk, alt-country, alt-pop, alt-all!

Robin Spielberg Saturday, Apr 24 7:30 PM Tickets: $15

From the moment she walks on stage, until the last note gently caresses the room, Spielberg casts a spell on her audience that is palpable, visceral, and spiritual. Better said – after you see her perform, you'll feel a whole lot better about the world. –Bruce Bressack for Hippopress.

Robin performed in Artesia in 2008 and was loved by all! Robin is the final concert scheduled in AAC's 2009-2010 brochure – don't miss it!
